

Telehealth - Are You Properly Coding for Services You are Performing?

10/15/2026 6:00 PM Eastern

Live Virtual Webinar

Too often the discussions surrounding coding and compliance focus on what healthcare practitioners cannot do or are doing incorrectly. Not this one! Many healthcare practitioners provide telehealth on a regular basis and are not submitting the codes that they should be submitting for those services. Those who attend this session are likely to learn that they can be submitting coding for services they are already performing in their everyday activities. The guidelines surrounding telehealth will be covered in this session, including coding guidelines and documentation requirements.

Learning Objectives:

1. Define telehealth
2. Differentiate between telehealth and telemedicine
3. Identify three required elements of a compliant telehealth encounter

Intended Audience: Podiatrists

Fees: $ 0.00

Refund Policy: N/A
